Short Mountain Distillery

For a true slice of Tennessee rural life, visit Short Mountain Distillery in Woodbury and learn how Tennessee moonshine is made! Their traditional process uses local stone-milled grain and Tennessee spring water to create a sour mash moonshine. Take the Cave Spring Trail, meet the legendary Short Mountain "Shiners" and try a taste of moonshine to judge for yourself! Short Mountain Distillery has only been open for distillery and farm tours since March 23, 2012, so this tour is an a real treat—an exciting new experience that you will truly enjoy! Everything on the farm is done organically and the distillery is working on becoming USDA Certified Organic. Each person on the tour will receive a complimentary Short Mountain Distillery shot glass!
